A MAN ARBESTED IN THE ACT OF BURGLARY.

Visit of Knights Templars-The Wrong Man Arrested-Celebration of the 22d-Minor News.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] PRIERRUBG, February 21, 1887.
A neat little piece of detective work on the part of a negro is reported from Greensville county which resulted in the arrest of Henry Moodie, a white man, while in the act of breaking into the tobacco-barn of Mr. Newell Ferguthe tobacco-barn of Mr. Newell Fergu-son, in the upper part of that county. The arrest was made about 10½ o'clock en Friday night by Captain Walker and Officer Manning, of the county police, and on Saturday the prisoner had an examination before Justice Deaking, at Hicksford, and was committed to jail ticksford, and was committed to jain to stand his trial' for burglary at the next term of the County Court. The trap for the capture of Moodie was laid by the above officers through the aid and information given by the colored detective. Moodie has served a term in the county jail for cow-stealing, from which he was pardoned by Gov-ernor Cameron. He has time and again been charged with other offences, again been charged with other offences, but managed to escape through the meshes of the law. It is reported that on the night of his arrest he had made arrangements to fire the barn after committing the robbery. A quantity of staw had been collected there by him, to which it is supposed he intended to apply the match. Sir Knights Preston Belvin and L.

A colored man was arrested in Farm-

An officer was sent up yesterday to identify the pris-oner, but he proved not to be the man who was wanted, though answering in several respects the description given of Wall.

Mr. Blair asked the presiding officer how it was that those veto messages had been published before being submitted to the Senate.

The presiding officer replied that they had been received on Saturday afternoon at an hour when it was not convenient to lay them before the Senate.

convenient to lay them before the Senate, but that they were then "public property."

The presiding officer presented petitions from "a large number of Grand-Army posts" of Ohio for the passage of the dependent pension bill over the President's veto. Laid on the table. Similar petitions were also presented by several other senators.

Mr. Whitthorne introduced a bill to authorize the construction of an arsenal for the manufacture of ordnance and ordnance stores for the use of the Gov-ernment of the United States at Colum-bia, Tenn. Referred to the Select Com-mittee on Ordnance.

The Senate, at 2:40, resumed the consideration of the river-and-harbor appropriation bill, the question being on the amendment offered by Mr. Van Wyck on Saturday last to the item of 2300,000 for improving the Missouri river, and which was to the effect that 3100,000 should be expended at Atchison, Fort Leavenworth, Arrow Rock, Omaha, &c. Messrs. McMillan, Conger, and Ransom were appointed conferrees on the river-and-harbor appropriation bill.

Mr. Henderson, of North Carolina, from the Committee on Elections, submitted the report in the Indians contested-election case of Kidd against Steele, and its was laid over until Thursday. [The report, which is unanimous, confirms the right of the contestee (Steele) to the seat.]

Mr. Cobb, of Indians, then called up the conference report—the report of disagreement—on the bill repealing the preemption, timber-culture, and desertland laws.

of the country, the rapid decrease of the area of public lands, and the grow-ing demand for homes had led the Com-mittee on Public Lands to report a measure to the House providing for the repeal of the preemption of timber-culture and desert-land laws. timber-culture and desert-land laws. Under the existing law a single person could enter 160 acres under the homestead, 160 acres under the preemption, 160 acres under the timber-culture, and 640 acres under the desert-land law, making a total of 1,120 acres. The committee had considered it wiser and more humane that the lands should be distributed in smaller constities to a greater number of peoquantities to a greater number of peo-ple Outrageous and scandalous abuses had grown under the existing laws, which had been taken advantage of by cormorants and land sharks in order to cormorants and land sharks in order to secure millions of acres of public lands. These abuses the committee had sought to correct. The bill had gone to the Senate, which had adopted a substitute for it, practically agreeing to all that the House had asked. But it had gone further and inserted several provisions to which the House conferrees could not agree. An irreconciliable difference of opinion existed among the conferrees as to the eighth section of the substitute. That section section of the substitute. That section section of the substitute. That section provided that, after final proof of the claimant and the issuing of a duplicate receiver's receipt, if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the commissioner that fraud has entered into the title (unless it shall appear that fand has been seld or environt to a hongbeen sold or conveyed to a bona-fide purchaser for valuable confide purchaser for valuable con-sideration) the commissioner shall suspend the issuing of a patent for the ame and file with the Attorney-General notice of such suspension; and it shall be the duty of the Attorney-General to commence proceedings to set aside such title if in his judgment the proceedings can be maintained. This action Mr. Stone regarded as inimical to every idea of sound legislation and of sound morals and honesty.

The debate upon the question raised by this section occupied the entire afternoon session. At its expiration, by a vote of 96 to 38, the report of the conferrees was accepted.

Mr. Cobb then moved that the House refuse to recede from its disagreement to the Senate amendments and agree to the request for a further conference.

Mr. Perkins moved that the House recede from its disagreement to section 8 of the bill and consent to the same with an amendment. Rejected-68 to

Mr. Cobb's motion was then agreed to and a further conference was ordered. On motion of Mr. Morrison, it was ordered that the daily hour for the meet-ing of the House shall be 11 o'clock. Adjourned.
